

Welcome to the Swimming Australia National Officiating Accreditation Scheme.

- Age of the participant must be appropriate for the standard of event in which they will be officiating
- Recommendation of a minimum of 4 hours prior to undertaking any formal training.
- Candidates must attend all course components or relevant modules as deemed appropriate by the course coordinator, unless recognition of current competency (RCC) or distance education options have been authorised by the provider.
- Updating will take place every 4 years and Officials must be actively officiating at relevant events and be displaying the required competencies to maintain accreditation. They must also be able to provide documentary evidence of activities as required. Information gained from practical assessments will also act as updating activities.
- All officials are bound by the SAL Member Welfare Policy. This incorporates a general code of behaviour and a code of conduct for all officials. The SAL Member Welfare Policy is available at www.swimming.org.au
- All officials are covered by the public liability insurance whilst attending training courses and whilst officiating at a SAL or State/Territory event. If officiating at a sanctioned state event, the state insurance will be invoked to cover the officials Public Liability.
- Upon successful completion of the SAL Officials Accreditation Program, SAL trained Technical Officials will be able to: Make Effective Decisions, Self Manage, Apply Risk Management Principles and Apply Technical Knowledge.
- There are 10 units within the SAL Technical Officials Training Program. SAL has developed best practice, competency-based Learner Guides for each unit.

Welcome to the Swimming Australia National Officiating Accreditation Scheme.

- Age of the participant must be appropriate for the standard of event in which they will be officiating
- Recommendation of a minimum of 4 hours prior to undertaking any formal training.
- Candidates must attend all course components or relevant modules as deemed appropriate by the course coordinator, unless recognition of current competency (RCC) or distance education options have been authorised by the provider.
- Updating will take place every 4 years and Officials must be actively officiating at relevant events and be displaying the required competencies to maintain accreditation. They must also be able to provide documentary evidence of activities as required. Information gained from practical assessments will also act as updating activities.
- All officials are bound by the SAL Member Welfare Policy. This incorporates a general code of behaviour and a code of conduct for all officials. The SAL Member Welfare Policy is available at www.swimming.org.au
- All officials are covered by the public liability insurance whilst attending training courses and whilst officiating at a SAL or State/Territory event. If officiating at a sanctioned state event, the state insurance will be invoked to cover the officials Public Liability.
- Upon successful completion of the SAL Officials Accreditation Program, SAL trained Technical Officials will be able to: Make Effective Decisions, Self Manage, Apply Risk Management Principles and Apply Technical Knowledge.
- There are 10 units within the SAL Technical Officials Training Program. SAL has developed best practice, competency-based Learner Guides for each unit.

Welcome to the Swimming Australia National Officiating Accreditation Scheme.

- Age of the participant must be appropriate for the standard of event in which they will be officiating
- Recommendation of a minimum of 4 hours prior to undertaking any formal training.
- Candidates must attend all course components or relevant modules as deemed appropriate by the course coordinator, unless recognition of current competency (RCC) or distance education options have been authorised by the provider.
- Updating will take place every 4 years and Officials must be actively officiating at relevant events and be displaying the required competencies to maintain accreditation. They must also be able to provide documentary evidence of activities as required. Information gained from practical assessments will also act as updating activities.
- All officials are bound by the SAL Member Welfare Policy. This incorporates a general code of behaviour and a code of conduct for all officials. The SAL Member Welfare Policy is available at www.swimming.org.au
- All officials are covered by the public liability insurance whilst attending training courses and whilst officiating at a SAL or State/Territory event. If officiating at a sanctioned state event, the state insurance will be invoked to cover the officials Public Liability.
- Upon successful completion of the SAL Officials Accreditation Program, SAL trained Technical Officials will be able to: Make Effective Decisions, Self Manage, Apply Risk Management Principles and Apply Technical Knowledge.
- There are 10 units within the SAL Technical Officials Training Program. SAL has developed best practice, competency-based Learner Guides for each unit.

Technical Official Practical Training Record Card

Name: _____

Club: _____

Position undertaken: _____

To promote a professional approach to the identification, training, and ongoing development of technical officials for all levels of swimming conducted by, or on behalf of SAL.

Technical Official Practical Training Record Card

Name: _____

Club: _____

Position undertaken: _____

To promote a professional approach to the identification, training, and ongoing development of technical officials for all levels of swimming conducted by, or on behalf of SAL.

Technical Official Practical Training Record Card

Name: _____

Club: _____

Position undertaken: _____

To promote a professional approach to the identification, training, and ongoing development of technical officials for all levels of swimming conducted by, or on behalf of SAL.