

Thank You

OFFICIALS FUNCTION

Swimming SA annually celebrates and thanks our officials who have volunteered their time during the past season.

Newly accredited officials as well as officials who have gone above and beyond to assist are recognised by way of an invitation to the function to acknowledge their contribution to the sport.

The function is usually held in October prior to the start of the new season

